This comfortable backpack has cushioning made of high-density foam that surrounds and protects the Notebook completely. The notebook strap offers additional safety which keeps the Notebook in place.

This backpack offers plenty of storage with its multiple compartments. In the large main compartment documents and mobile equipment can easily be stowed away. The workstation creates order for mobile phone, pens, keys and more. The various other compartments are for power supplies, cables, and MP3/CD players.

The V7 Mission Backpack is equipped with ergonomically formed shoulder straps as well as an active breathable back cushion. The adjustable chest strap and hip strap, with cushioned flaps, provide for secure active fastening and excellent carrying comfort. In addition, there is reflective material on the front sides for optimal safety in the dusk and dark.
